Tribute from Ramona White

Relation: She was my friend and neighbour

In Loving Memory of Carol

My name is Ramona White, and I had the privilege of living next to Carol in Shawnigan Lake. As a single mom with two kids, I was fortunate to have her as a neighbor and friend. Carol, also a single mom, and her three beautiful children, together we formed a strong camaraderie.

We shared countless adventures, laughter, and dinners. I remember the winter of '96 when we were supposed to take the kids to Mount Washington, only to wake up to a massive snowstorm. Instead of being disappointed, we embraced the moment. We spent the day shoveling snow off our roofs, and when we finished, we helped the older residents in our park. What started as a chore turned into a joyous day filled with laughter, and we were generously rewarded with all forms of alcohol—a testament to the fun we had together.

Carol had a remarkable spirit. Her beautiful smile and infectious laughter are memories I cherish. She was determined, firm, kind, and loving—qualities that made her an amazing mother to her children. I have not seen Carol for quite some time, but I know she would be thriving, surrounded by her children and grandchildren.

Life, in all its complexities, was exactly what it was meant to be for Carol and her family. Those were truly special times for me and my kids, and I know she will be deeply missed by so many.
