December 5, 1938 - July 10, 2023

Tribute from H.W. Wallace Cremation & Burial Centre

H.W. Wallace Cremation & Burial Centre staff send our condolences to family and friends.

Tribute from Gerda Rozenboom

I remember Mrs. Jensen from Brownies and Girl Guides in Gold River. My deepest sympathy to Greg, Wendy and family for the loss of your Mum.

Tribute from Arlene Cary

Relation: We were friends for 73 years,

My deepest sympathy to Greg, Wendy, Lise, Andrew and families, and also to all the rest of Carol's family and all her many friends. As Carol and I have known each other for so many years (73), and were raised in the same neighbourhood, I have always felt Carol was almost family. I will also miss her. Rest in peace Carol.AA

Tribute from Gail Weber

Relation: Life long friend

Sincere condolences to Carol's family. Being raised 2 doors down from the Kennedy's we were like a neighborhood family. Many great memories from over the years. So many fond memories. Rest in peace Carol.

Tribute from Linda (Fraser) (Backlund) Blatchford

Relation: Carol was my good friend who I loved better than family.

I am heart broken to hear that my good friend and fellow Alto singer, Carol passed away. I called Carol my adopted mom and she called me her adopted daughter. I met Carol when we were both in the Cowichan Musical Society as we sang together in the Alto section for the ten shows I was involved in. I was also part of Medford singers with Carol once in a while. I loved Carol...her sense of humor, how she was brave enough to be a leader with new notes and new music. I loaned her my peddle machine so she could pedal her way into better health while sitting in her chair....I am sad that didn't work to help keep her with us on this earth. Carol will be a super special singing angel for us all now. Rest in peace my friend....mom. I will miss your hugs so do not hesitate to squeeze me from heaven every now and again!

Tribute from Evid Hazelbower

Relation: Friend

My deep condolences to Greg, Wendy, Lise, Andrew, your families and Carol's close friends. I met Carol through the Tzouhalem Spinners and Weavers Guild, where she was a Force and a Presence. She was an amazing woman with such an enormous interest and curiosity in the world, so many skills and talents, intelligence and humour, generosity and kindness. Her courage and strength were something to see. It was an honour to be thought of as her friend. She will be sorely missed by so many people in so many places. We're going to be submitting entries to the Fairs. Really. She's out there somewhere, working on a project and feeling fine. I'll be bringing her some chai. Thank you, Carol.

Tribute from Liz Hammond-Kaarremaa

Relation: Fibre friend

I didn't know Carol well or for long but I know she was an exceptional person. She made friends of strangers and made them welcome. She was interesting and interested. I felt lucky to know her.

Tribute from Norma Ritchie, Pacific Edge Chorus

Relation: I sang baritone with Carol.

Carol was a lovely Sweet Adeline singing baritone with Greater Victoria and City of Gardens Choruses from 2004-2012. We were very fortunate that she arranged for the various modes of transportation for City of Gardens' fantastic performance and sightseeing tour of England and Wales in 2010 -- the trip of a lifetime!

Tribute from Molsons

Relation: Friend

Our sincere condolences. Love from the Molson family

Tribute from Elinor Warkentin

Relation: Friend

My condolences to Carol's family and friends. I met Carol through 5W (Women Welcome Women World Wide), a women's travel friendship organization. It was 2005, I had organized a Gathering in Vancouver which Carol, along with ten other members from Canada, USA, England, Scotland, Australia & Japan. I recall sitting on a large porch at our B&B, on a sunny fall, enjoying the company. Carol was articulate, smart, and funny. She spoke and listened well. Our paths crossed many times since then, sharing travel stories, life moments and usually warmth and laughter. The photo is from 2007, when Carol and Vancouver Island members met myself and members from Germany and France. That was a fun and memorable get together we often recalled. I liked Carol. I have met women from around the world through 5W, Carol was one of those that brightened my life.
