Relation: ex son in law

Jim, your passing out of our lives for the second time in a way, is difficult, but I am so glad we saw you before you left on this final journey. Thank you for being such a wonderful uncle to the kids and for your wit and wisdom and playfulness. You were always there for Joshua, and we admired your fortitude and compassion. He can't do better than being a chip off the old Block! We hope the fishing is good, and know that you will be inspiring and looking out for Dom from wherever you are.

Tribute from Lesley Joy

Relation: I taught his son Joshua

Dear Joshua and Hayley, I'm sorry to read of your loss of Jim. He was a good help to me when I started teaching at Sunrise and, all round, a good fellow. Joshua - I know you have the best of him in you; to work with daily and to pass on to your offspring. He'll be with you - especially when you go fishing! Take care. Love from Lesley.

Tribute from Gerry Burke and Judy Green

Relation: back in the day

Judy and I never will forget the big smile of Jim Block, back in the day he was there with bright eyes wanting to share.. like something big was about to happen.. and he was including you. It was all about sharing back then.. the movement was happening.. and we were all in it together. see you on the other side. Jimbo.

Tribute from Inez Loudon

Relation: Jim put up my sign posts

My condolences to Jim's family for the loss of a great man. I am one of many Realtors Jim put up For Sale posts for since he started D & D Sign Setters. Jim called me after installing my sign post telling me it was his last day because he was diagnosed with cancer - we had such a heart warming conversation and I am so grateful for that. Jim was consciencious, reliable, very personable and is missed greatly. Inez Louden
