Tribute from Larry Gagné

Relation: Friend

Dear Eli, family and friends. It is with profound sadness that I learned of Guy's passing. His tribute is so well written. While I had not seen Guy for many years, I recently had the opportunity to connect with him and looked forward to getting to see him and Eli on the island. I just want to share that Guy was so genuine, gentle and caring. I so appreciated his philosophical yet practical outlook on life. He obviously became a master of his craft! May the many memories of the time shared with Guy comfort and sustain you always. Blessings. Larry Gagné

Dear family of Guy, Especially to Eli whom I have not met yet. May Our Lord and Saviour comfort you and your family as only He can. My thoughts and prayers are with you at this time and in the days ahead. The last time I say Guy was at Frances's funeral. We shared a special connection at that time, about Our Lord and about his life with Frances and his children(at the time). He was a gentle and kind man with a heart of love and joy. Be encouraged Eli that you will meet with Guy again.

Tribute from Paul Levesque

Relation: cousin

our deepest sympathies goes to his family

Tribute from Brent Lamoureux

Relation: Nephew

It saddens me greatly to hear of uncle Guy's passing. I wish I had been given more opportunities in life to chat with him in later years. My memories of him were mainly from family gatherings back in Manitoba, when he would visit once in a blue moon. He seemed to have such amazing tales to tell, and the manner in which he told them were truly unique. I was hoping to finally visit him in BC later this year, but I guess God had other plans, and I can only wonder how that trip would have gone. He will be sorely missed, and may his close family and friends have my deepest sympathies and condolences on his passing.
