I am so sorry Miranda , Georgia , Mila and parents and everyone else related . I know he had so many family members and friends . I have no words as there are none that will bring you comfort. I am here to share in your grief and tell you are loved and supported. Death is an enemy and I am sorry it reached Josh at such a young age. Please be strong and know that he is resting and in no pain. I am here anytime , anywhere to sit with any of you and hold your hand and cry because this isn't right . You are loved

Relation: Friend

Remembering Josh as a sweet young boy who went to school with our son Aaron. They were good buddies. Watched Josh become such a nice young man. Josh always gave me a hug when we would run into him. Did not know Miranda as well but over the past few weeks have admired her strength and love for Josh and her two sweet girls. Our heart goes out to Miranda, Jeannie, Mark and Sara and family. Sending huge hugs.

Tribute from abby dirom

Relation: Close family friend

My heart breaks for you all. Long time close family friends, Josh has always been apart of my life. From playing at the farm as a young toddler, to Christmas parties and seeing him at my uncles farm. Josh was and will continue to be the life of the party, larger than life. His joyous laugh, his love for his girls and family, his hard work ethic all made him the man he was and that we all should remember him by. I will never understand why life can be so unfair. My condolences to the Fraser's/Mellor's. love you guys forever. Keep sending us all rainbows, Josh. With love forever, Abby Dirom.

Tribute from Jennifer Woike

Relation: Friend

Ahhh how I will miss this man who wasn't afraid to go toe to toe with me. You were always the guy I called to ask ridiculous questions about Bulls and reproduction concerns in cows. Some of our conversations were very strange! You were the first person that was by our sides when there was an emergency on the farm. I would turn around and you would be there saying "what can I do to help?" You took my son under your wing-this scared me immensely at times :) and helped guide him when he needed it most. I will miss you, my friend. Trust that we will always be looking out for your girls.
