

REMEMBERING

Keith George Sinclair

January 24, 1937 - October 11, 2018

After a brief illness, Keith passed away peacefully. His daughter, Sarah, and son, Ian, were by his side. Keith is survived by his wife of 22 years, Luetta Sinclair; his son Ian (Alisa), his daughters, Sarah (Dean) and Jasmine, and his step-daughters, Rana (David) and Lori. Keith had four grandchildren, Dendy, Sam, Lewis, and Laura.

Keith was born in London, England, and immigrated to Toronto, Canada, in 1957. He later moved to Comox in 1975 and then to Duncan in 1985 where he was a bookkeeper at Acacia Lodge until his retirement. Keith was very much involved in the church and his faith was very important to him. He enjoyed Scottish Country Dancing, travelling to England, Scotland, and Australia, and renovated many of his own houses over his lifetime. He was also a keen woodworker and spent many happy hours working in his workshop creating beautiful pieces of furniture.

Thank you to Dr. Seymour and the staff at Cowichan District Hospital for making Keith's last days comfortable.

A service will be held at St. John's Anglican Church in mid Feb 2019.
