Tribute from Robert Barrington

Relation: Multiple business contact

I remember Kelly so well. For ten years he was my "go to" electrician. Smart, quick and a great problem solver. I saw a softer side too in his outlook on life. We definitely bonded as animals lovers. He was the only contractor I ever engaged that always brought his dog. Thank you Kelly for making this world a little bit better for a lot of people. Peace.

Tribute from Jamie Gielens and Lucie Teasdale

Relation: As a friend and client of his.

We first met Kelly in 2009 when he came to wire in my new shop and do some work in the house. We hit it off immediately and while we were not close friends we were always happy to see each other when we happened to meet. He was a consummate gentleman as well as being a friend (and great electrician) helping me set up my shop properly and giving us lots of advice regarding the house wiring. He was an inspiration to me in my own battle with cancer. He and Fred were always welcome and Fred and Monty got to know each other well in the few times they met. We were wondering why we had not seen him in a while. We send all our condolences to you Marylin and also to Fred. I know how much you will both miss Kelly. All our love - Jamie and Lucie

Tribute from Susan and Geoff

Relation: Friend and electrician

We moved to the Island 10 years ago and needed an electrician for our huge renovation. We found Kelly's name in the local newspaper and instantly all our trouble, which were many, disappeared. He was a fixture in our house for many, many days, too many if his remarks were anything to go by, but in spite of the less than flattering comments about our intelligence and the frequent eye rolling, we just loved this man. He made us laugh, he made us cringe by our stupidity, but mostly he made our lives richer.

Rest in peace, sweet, sweet Kelly and Marilyn, I'm sorry that we never met you, but he talked about you often and by his words we know that you are someone we would like to know.

Tribute from Al Woodcock

Relation: Friend

I met Kelly in junior high school, Mount Prevost, and became pretty good friends. Out of school we all went our separate ways but many times over the following years our paths would cross and we had great times reminiscing. In recent years Kelly did a couple of wiring jobs for us and our daughter. He was a true gentleman and will be missed.

Tribute from Erika Katzmann

Relation: Through work at Canada Post

Marilyn Bowman I came across this obituary and as I read the beautiful tribute to Kelly I wondered if you were the Marilyn and Kelly that lived on the boat in False Creek. You may not remember me but I worked with you Marilyn at the Post Office in Vancouver. I have often thought about you and Kelly. Remember the time we went snowshoeing at Cypress it was so fun. My deepest sympathy Marilyn. Kelly was a kind and wonderful man. Marilyn I would love to get in touch with you..... I now live in West Kelowna.
