I am so sorry for your loss of Lorraine she was a great woman. She was one of my Mom's best friends. I have many happy memories of my youth with Lorraine, Sam Kim, Sid. Camping near Ladysmith, going to the PNE in the RV. Visiting their home for BBQS and always being welcomed by the whole family. I am sorry I can not attend the memorial service but it is too costly to fly out from Edmonton, Alberta. David Carter my brother and I send our love to the whole family. We remember how great Lorraine was from singing , entertaining, dinner parties. I am sure Lorraine is saying Hello to my Mom Doreen and they are having a good time together with everyone in Heaven.

My Dad and Lorraine are probably looking down on all of us and maybe dancing a prairie jig! Your wife, Mom, Nana was always a very special friend to both Jim and I. We know you will miss her presence greatly. Take comfort in knowing that she definitely left her mark and a great legacy. We will remember you all in thoughts and prayers.
