Tribute from Kristine Thompson

I am so sorry to hear of Nick's passing. As a friend of his daughters while growing up, I am forever grateful that I was always welcome in their home, or occasionally hanging out at the Nikon office. My best memories of Nick are being hustled into the boat, The 4 Bears, for a glassy morning ski or a thrilling blustery afternoon tube ride. It didn't matter how late we had been up perfecting Spice Girls airband performances, if the water was glassy, you got up and grabbed a towel and waited for your time after Nick took a few quick turns on the slalom. You'd be left in awe of how close he could get his ears to the water and stand up again. The Woywitkas all knew how to ski, and if you didn't, they would happily toss you a lifejacket and a bottle of dish soap, and do circles around your sputtering until you figured it out or the sun went down. Thank you Nick. I'm sorry it has been so long. My utmost condolences to your family, especially your daughters.
