My condolences to wife and family. Ray and I started as transit operators at the same time and had much in common being close to the same age and of Scottish ancestry. Ray had a very cheerful disposition driving and was great to work around. What a loss to lose someone at such a young age. I'll raise a dram of single malt in his honor.

Tribute from Barbara Fogarty

Shelley, I have so many memories of you and Ray - the first Camping trip at China beach when Cassie was 3 months old. Ray and Phil out fishing like a pair of kids. I think he always had a smile on his face. And the arrival of Dustin, bringing you both great joy. Ray will be remembered. In my heart I hope Phil and Ray have their fishing poles...if so, they'll both be smiling and fishing together.
