Tribute from Bruce Carnegie

Relation: Family Friend

I was very surprised and sad to hear that Bob Parmenter had passed away. The Parmenter's were one of the first families we (me and my two brothers) met when we first moved to Duncan in 1975. He was about the friendliest and most sincere "older dude" that I had ever met in my 13 years of existence. He could tell right away that I loved boats; and, boy was I excited when he showed me how to operate one of his Pier 66 rentals, and then let me take it out for a spin. For many years our two families united on occasion for a Saturday or Sunday get-together, and I always enjoyed their company and the fact that Bob took an interest in what was going on in my life. The last time I saw Bob was when my father-in-law passed away eight years ago. Bob, Sue and I, and my parents, had lunch together, and I still recall how he was the same jovial, happy-go-lucky person that he was when we first met 36 years earlier. We will miss you Bob.

Tribute from Ian Carnegie

Relation: Long time friend and former coworker

Although not unexpected, it is still tough to lose a loved old friend. A friendship that spans over fifty years. Bob's affable manner endeared him to all who knew him which helped him be successful as an insurance claims specialist and later in business. Good bye dear friend, may we meet again.

Ian

You were my first boss. You were both generous and gracious. I will always remember pumping gas at the Pier 66 gas dock for you and Sue. On behalf of the Reid family, I would like to send our condolences to Sue, Debbie, Pat and Sandy.

Jerry Reid.
