Tribute from Carol-Ann Rolls

Relation: work/volunteer

Sending my condolence and remembrance to Bill's family. Bill taught bridge for many years at the Cowichan Community Center when I was the Coord. and then our paths crossed again setting up the Block Watch program in Laurel Grove when I was the Crime Prevention Manager. Bill always had a joke to share and his wit kept us on our toes.

I am so saddened to hear of Bill's passing . He was a wonderful man, thoughtful, funny, creative and so intelligent. He and Cal were so kind to my daughter who just moved in across the street from them. They were a wonderful couple. I am gratified to know that he spent his last years in comfort . He was a treasure! I am so sorry for your loss but he had a wonderful life and a magnificent family!
